

Workforce Central Service Provider Network

Workforce Central Service Provider Network is a peer-learning group of public, non-profit and faith-based organizations that work together on one ultimate objective: Ensure workers are prepared to meet the needs of local employers. ►

Workforce Central Ultimate Outcome

Everyone in the south Wood County area who wants to work has ample opportunities to prepare for and secure a family sustaining job and advance in a career over time.

Current and prospective workers conveniently access a comprehensive, seamless array of education, training and support services, provided by a strong partnership of employers, educators and service providers that take shared responsibility for a healthy workforce, economy and job market.
