You're Invited Public Idea Sharing Tuesday, November 12

5:30 - 7:30 pm, Centralia Center, 220 Third Ave S
RSVP TribuneBuilding.org or call 715.423.3863

At meeting #1 on October 8, over 210 community members came together to make history. Hundreds of ideas were generated around the future use of the former Daily Tribune Building, and there's more work to do. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to participate in the decision-making process to create a space designed by the community.

Join Us!

Decision-making will take place in a series of four meetings; the first took place on October 8. The progress of each meeting will build upon the previous session as residents move forward on ideas and decisions.

Frequently Asked Questions

How will renovations be funded?

In December 2012, Incourage purchased the building, assessed at $668,000, for $527,000 and committed to securing resources for adaptive reuse of the property. The final funding will be determined after the property's end use is decided by the community.

What happened at the first Public Idea-Sharing?

The October 8 meeting focused on understanding community assets and needs while brainstorming the future of this iconic property and its 20,000 sq. ft. Meeting materials and ideas generated are now online at TribuneBuilding.org/resources.

I couldn't be at the first meeting; may I attend Nov 12?

Yes! We will start by reviewing the work done to-date and move forward in the decision-making process together. Help us spread the word ... everyone in the community is invited to participate.

The first meeting was popular; will there be more space next time?

Yes! Tables and chairs will be spread out into the Centralia River Walk area – giving all participants more space in small-group discussions. To help ensure the right amount of space at the next meeting ... RSVP online at TribuneBuilding.org or call 715.423.3863.
