What can you expect?

Lara Kalwinski, Senior Counsel for Compliance & Policy at the Council on Foundations, will guide attendees through the Form 990 – the informational tax form most nonprofit organizations and foundations must file annually with the IRS – and share the fundamentals of foundations. Learn how to read the Form 990 and understand the information it provides about an organization. Become more informed about different types of foundations and best practices in philanthropy.

About The Council on Foundations

The Council on Foundations (www.cof.org), founded in 1949, is a nonprofit leadership association of grant making foundations and corporations. It provides the opportunity, leadership, and tools needed by philanthropic organizations to expand, enhance, and sustain their ability to advance the common good. With members from all foundation types and sizes, the Council empowers professionals in philanthropy to meet today's toughest challenges and advances a culture of charitable giving in the U.S. and globally.

Lara Kalwinski is Senior Counsel for Compliance and Policy at the Council on Foundations, which includes being the Executive Director of the National Standards for U.S. Community Foundations® accreditation program. Lara brings nearly a decade of exempt organizations legal and foundation management expertise to the Council.
