

Lesson 11

Area: Listen

Title: Where Am I Going?

Objective: Students will listen and follow directions.

Materials: Paper
Writing Utensils

- Activity:
1. Pair students; one student will be “A”, one will be “B”.
 2. Tell student A to explain, one time only without repeating, how to get from school (where you are) to their house.
 3. After listening to all of the directions from student A, student B will write down the directions.
 4. Reverse roles. Student B will give directions and student A will write them down when student B is finished.
 5. When both students have finished both parts, they should show each other and check for accuracy.

Closure: Discuss the following:

1. “Did you receive good directions?”
2. “How many of you might get lost based on the directions you were given?”
3. “How might you feel about trying to find your friend’s house?”
4. “What did you learn about listening and following directions?”