

Building Your Relationship Network

Building and maintaining strong relationships is becoming a critical competency for increased performance, success, overall well-being and for encouraging civility. This worksheet can assist you in strategically planning time and effort in strengthening your key relationships.

Directions: Use the worksheet to assess the current status of your key personal and professional relationships. Identify the current status of the relationship. List the specific action you plan to take with each key relationship so you can build a stronger, wider social network.

Category	Status: Determine whether you need to Create, Enhance or Repair the relationship	Action: List the specific action you will take toward that relationship	Deadline
Immediate Manager/Leaders
Peer/Colleagues
Family/Friends
Community/Neighbors
Social Clubs
Other			